Part 1

The president of the CSVEI, Anne Daems, welcomes all and reminds everyone that live translation is provided in French and in English.

The plenary assembly adopts the agenda.

The attendance list is reviewed

- Follow-up of the Burex meeting held on August 25, 2026

The various items on the agenda of this plenary session were discussed in the BUR.EX as part of the preparation. In accordance with the CSVEI Rules of Procedure, the BUR.EX systematically meets no later than three weeks before each plenary session.

- Follow-up on the study on extremism

The second phase of the study on extremism has started. It is being carried out by the same contractors as the first phase, namely Magalie de Rocco and Marine Henri.

The various stages of this phase:

- Cross-perspective workshops: institutional dialogue with stakeholders who took part in Phase 1. The main objective is to identify their views on the summary of the Phase 1 report. The aim is to refine the conclusions of the summary.
- Formulation of recommendations by the CSVEI working group based on the study's findings.
- Presentation of the first-phase report and progress update by the contractors to the CSVEI in the first quarter of 2027.
- Series of conferences from the second quarter of 2027 onwards.

As a reminder: the Study Working Group currently comprises Charles Margue and Mahmoud Moussa. Any member may join this working group.

- Creation of a working group for an advice on PAN VEI (GT PAN VEI)

The various ministries involved in the actions under the PAN VEI will submit their opinions by the end of September.

The draft PAN VEI is being forwarded for consultation to the CSVEI, the councils of mayors and aldermen of the municipalities, and the CCVEIs.

The procedure following the publication of the draft PAN VEI on the internet provides, in accordance with Article 3 of the Law of 23 August 2023 on intercultural coexistence, for the following deadlines:

- Information meetings on the draft PAN VEI within 60 days of publication.
- Any person residing or working in Luxembourg may submit their comments to their local authority within 30 days of the presentation (information meeting).

- Following receipt of the comments, the municipal councils have 30 days to draw up an opinion on these comments and to forward it to the Minister for Family, Solidarity, Living Together and Reception.
- The CCVEIs and the CSVEI have a period of 4 months to submit their opinions to the MFSVA.
- The consultation process therefore lasts for 4 months following publication.
- An online form developed by the Living Together Division will be made available on the 'Zesummen vereinfachen' platform to make it easier for those wishing to submit comments.
- Upon receipt of the opinions, the Minister shall, within four months, draw up a report on the opinions received and, where appropriate, make amendments to the document before it is adopted by the Government in Council.

A presentation of the draft National Action Plan on intercultural living together (PAN VEI) to the members of the CSVEI is scheduled to take place at an extraordinary plenary session in early 2027. Both members of each pair will be able to attend. The CSVEI may instruct the dedicated working group to submit an opinion.

- Miscaellaneous

As part of the National Action Plan against Racism, a national awareness-raising campaign focusing on microaggressions will be launched in mid-October.

Part 2

Presentation of the Biergerpakt, followed by Q&A

Jacques Brosius and Anne Franziskus, coordinators of the Biergerpakt team within the Living Together Division, presented an overview of the Biergerpakt's current status, as well as the proposed directions for its development in the coming months (see the PowerPoint presentation for further information).

Following this presentation, members asked a number of questions of a practical and structural nature.
