

Grants to associations initiating projects in the fields of intercultural living together or awareness-raising campaigns for the European elections

Terms and conditions CALL FOR SUBSIDIES 2024

1. General framework

Through the budget item "Subsidies for projects in the field of integration and the fight against discrimination" (item 12.2.33.010), the Ministry for Family Affairs, Solidarity, Living Together and Reception of Refugees (hereinafter referred to as "the Ministry") offers financial support, until the available funds, to non-profit associations and/or federations that initiate actions in favour of intercultural living together, anti-racism and the fight against discrimination based on race, origin or nationality.

2. Call for projects 2024

As part of the 2024 call for subsidies, two (2) types of subsidies are available to associations:

Intercultural living together subsidies	Support for associations initiating projects that promote intercultural living together and combat discrimination
Campaign subsidies	Support for associations contributing to the "I can vote" awareness campaign for the European elections

Grant applications are analysed by the Intercultural Living Together Division according to the criteria described in this document. Internal thematic experts will take part in the selection of projects.

3. Eligibility and selection criteria

a. Eligibility criteria

Intercultural living together subsidies
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The applicant must be either a not-for-profit association or a federation.• The project for which the subsidy is requested must form part of the intercultural living together policy pursued by the Ministry and as defined by the law of 23 August 2023 relating to intercultural living together. Projects must therefore involve both Luxembourg and non-Luxembourg residents, and can even include cross-border workers.

- It must be a specific, one-off project, consisting of one or more concrete actions, carried out during the current year and taking place in Luxembourg. This may involve an event, the creation of a deliverable, the carrying out of a study or even the conceptualisation and/or implementation of training courses. The operating costs or regular activities of associations are not eligible, in accordance with the eligibility of expenditure described in Annex 2 "Explanatory sheet of eligible costs".
- The deadlines and periods indicated under point 4. b. of this document for submitting the application and the date/period of the project must be respected. The project can only take place/start six (6) weeks after each deadline.
- Depending on the budget available, the Ministry will be able to grant financial support up to 100% of the total cost of the project in accordance with the eligibility of the expenses, but not exceeding €10,000.
- The same association may receive a maximum of one (1) grant per year for this type of subsidy.

Campaign subsidies

With a view to the European elections on 9 June 2024, the Ministry will be launching the "I can vote" awareness campaign to encourage non-Luxembourg residents who are nationals of the European Union (EU) to register to vote.

- The applicant must be either a not-for-profit association or a federation.
- The project for which the subsidy is requested must be in line with the Ministry's policy of intercultural living together and help to increase the political participation of non-Luxembourgers.
- Events with a wide audience will be targeted, including in particular information sessions and activities to raise awareness of political participation taking place in Luxembourg during the current year. The organisation of such an event may be a regular activity of the association. However, please note that only costs relating to the organisation of the event or session are taken into account in accordance with the eligibility of expenditure described in Annex 2 "Explanatory sheet of eligible costs".
- This event or information session must include the "I can vote" campaign materials (flyers, stands, posters, etc.) made available by the Ministry subject to prior reservation.
- The main target audience is therefore EU nationals residing in Luxembourg who are eligible to register to vote, although there are no exclusion criteria.
- The deadlines and periods indicated under point 4. b. of this document for submitting the application and the date of the event must be respected. The event may only take place four (4) weeks after each deadline.
- Depending on the budget available, the Ministry will be able to grant financial support up to 100% of the total cost of the event, up to a maximum of €1,000, depending on the eligibility of the expenses listed in the application form.
- The same association may receive a maximum of one (1) grant per year for this type of subsidy.

b. Selection criteria

To be eligible for financial support, the actions, projects or events submitted must meet the criteria listed below as closely as possible.

Intercultural living together subsidies

- Relevance of the project: relevance of the project in relation to the needs identified (project initiated on the basis of an inventory, studies, etc.), support for intercultural living together in Luxembourg, objectives of the project and expected results, complementarity with other actions funded under national or municipal programmes;
- Feasibility of the project and partnership(s): realistic project describing the various stages of its implementation, description of the partners and their role in organising the project;
- Evaluation: number of people targeted, target audience (interaction between participants, diversity of the audience), means of communication envisaged, realistic monitoring system, evaluation over time of the impact and satisfaction of the target audience, success indicators linked to the objectives set ;
- Cost-effectiveness: project in line with the principles of sound financial management, consistent with the number of people affected by the project.

Campaign subsidies

- Compliance with the policy on intercultural living together: The nature of the event must be consistent with the Ministry's policy on intercultural living together, must not therefore run counter to it and must help to increase the political participation of non-Luxembourgers;
- Specific target audience: As stipulated in the "I can vote" campaign, the majority of the audience present or potentially present at the event or session must be non-Luxembourg residents who are EU nationals and of voting age on European election day;
- Mandatory conditions: Financial support will only be granted if these two (2) conditions are met:
 1. The "I can vote" campaign materials (stand, flyer, roll-up, leaflets, etc.) must be used at the event or information session;
 2. The objective, or one of the objectives, of the event must meet the objectives of the campaign, which are to inform the target audience and raise their awareness so as to encourage them to register to vote and thus increase their political participation.

c. Information sessions

Information sessions are planned throughout the year to provide all the information needed to apply for a subsidy. The procedures for awarding a grant, the intercultural living-together policy applied by the Ministry and key information relating to the European elections and the fight against racism will be presented. There will also be a question and answer session at the end of the presentation. The sessions are organised as follows:

- 7 February 2024 at 6.00 p.m. face-to-face in French on the MIFA-DI premises - registration deadline 5 February 2024 ;
- 26 March 2024 at 6.00 p.m. face-to-face in French on the MIFA-DI premises - registration deadline 22 March 2024 ;
- 11 July 2024 at 6.00 p.m. face-to-face in French on the MIFA-DI premises - registration deadline 9 July 2024.

To register for one of these information sessions, project promoters should send details of their association and the full names of the participants, making sure to indicate their choice of date for the session, to the following email address: subsidies.zesummeliewen@fm.etat.lu

Individual face-to-face or virtual meetings can also be organised in Luxembourgish if the association wishes to discuss a particular project. A specific request with a brief description of the project should be sent to the above e-mail address.
