

Project selected as part of the 2025 call for projects « Promoting cultural diversity and (re-)discovering Luxembourg »

Workstream: Passing on and enriching Luxembourg traditions

Project lead	Radio Ara
Project title	Bourgmeisterin Fireside Chats
Project duration	03.11.2025 – 30.06.2027

Project Presentation

The “Bourgmeisterin Fireside Chats” are welcoming, participatory bi-monthly gatherings where Luxembourg’s history and culture come to life through dialogue with a historian or a contemporary figure. With themes such as “springtime rituals,” these evenings blend storytelling, discussion, Q&A, and informal exchange, fostering connections between residents, newcomers, and culture enthusiasts. Interactive and participatory, the events are also released as podcasts, building bridges across generations and communities and turning history into a living, shared experience.

Main Objectives

- Highlight Luxembourgish traditions through bi-monthly gatherings.
- Build intercultural bridges between residents and newcomers.
- Strengthen belonging, dialogue, and social cohesion.

Target Audiences

- Adults living and working in Luxembourg
- Listeners of Radio ARA and the Bourgmeisterin community
- Cultural partners, institutions, and local associations
- A multicultural, multilingual, and intergenerational public
