

Call for projects 2025

“Promoting cultural diversity and (re-)discovering Luxembourg”

1. Introduction

To implement the law of 23 August 2023 on intercultural living together, the Living Together Division of the Ministry of Family Affairs, Solidarity, Living Together and Reception of Refugees is launching a call to fund projects aimed at enhancing cultural diversity and enriching the (re-)discovery of Luxembourg. These projects must be complementary to the ‘Discover Luxembourg’ module organised as part of the intercultural living together programme. They must be locally or regionally rooted in order to highlight the cultural diversity of Luxembourg society or of the Greater Region.

To be eligible, a project must cost a minimum amount of €10,000.

Other means of funding are available outside of this call for projects for smaller-scale association projects¹.

2. Purpose of the call

This call for projects focuses on two main areas:

The two priorities
Work-stream 1	Promoting the Council of Europe's certified cultural routes or other similar initiatives Projects to promote Council of Europe-certified cultural itineraries with the aim of enhancing local Luxembourg networks that put into practice the fundamental values of intercultural living together: mutual respect, tolerance, solidarity, social cohesion, the fight against racism and all forms of discrimination. In this context, projects are particularly aimed at: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Promoting the Council of Europe's certified cultural routes as tools for discovery and intercultural and/or intergenerational exchange. - Raising awareness of European and Luxembourg cultural heritage through interactive and immersive itineraries. - Encouraging local or regional initiatives that highlight heritage sites, traditions, collective memory and historical accounts linked to these routes. - Developing digital tools, exhibitions and entertaining activities to facilitate access to these routes for socially, culturally and linguistically heterogeneous populations. Projects can take a variety of forms, including interactive and immersive tours, travelling exhibitions, themed guided tours and cross-border collaborations. Target group: People of legal age who live or work in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, including local residents, Luxembourgers, non-Luxembourgers, new arrivals, people involved in heritage promotion, cross-border commuters.
