Workstream: Citizens' Pact and Intercultural Living Together Program – Development of model modules

Project Leader	Mir wëllen iech ons Heemecht weisen
Project Title	Bis am Bus
Project Duration	01.09.2024 – 30.11.2025

Project description

The 'Bis am Bus' project aims to create a place for intercultural encounters and exchange, in places where encounters do not happen so easily. Working with 3 municipalities, the project leader will develop a programme of intercultural workshops (modules) that consider the challenges and opportunities of each of the 3 municipalities. To attract the attention of the population, a bus will be present at the launch to promote the workshops and at the closing, where it will become the centre of an intercultural festival to present the results of the workshops.

Main objectives

- Create a meeting place with a focus on intercultural modules/workshops
- Enable participation in a joint project
- Initiate and strengthen intercultural dialogue
- Stimulate living together
- Create and strengthen a sense of belonging and community

Target audience

- General population of municipalities including applicants for international protection and beneficiaries of international protection
- Local community leaders
